ADEPT

To help prepare teacher candidates and guide the professional development of practicing teachers at all stages of their careers

To determine eligibility for certificate advancement (pre-professional to professional)

To suspend the certificates of annual-contract teachers who have two unsuccessful formal evaluations

To assist school districts in making employment and contract decisions

To provide feedback to IHEs on the performance of their graduates

ADEPT standards are integrated throughout candidates' course work and field experiences.

Student teaching is the capstone ADEPT experience.

ADEPT
for IHEs

IHEs enter student teacher data into the IHE Portal System.

IHEs receive – and are rated on – the ADEPT results for each graduate who teaches in a SC public school.

Evaluating Educators

New ADEPT Formal Evaluation Instrument

- SAFE-T (2010-11 is the end of the three-year roll-out)

SAFE-T Use

- Is now used statewide with teachers at the annual-contract level. May also be used with continuing-contract teachers, at the discretion of the local school district.

SAFE-T Design

- Represents a significant departure from the previous ADEPT formal evaluation instruments
- Uses six sources of evidence to analyze teacher effectiveness
- Includes student achievement, but does not yet include value-added

Evaluating Educators

SAFE-T Evaluator Certification

- SAFE-T certification requirements include successful completion of the training, including all assignments, and the online examination.

SAFE-T Evaluator Training

- SAFE-T evaluator training is conducted using a train-the-trainer model. The SCDE trains and certifies all trainers.
- The current pass-rate for the SAFE-T exam is 94%.

SAFE-T Evaluators

- Currently, there are 8,577 certified SAFE-T evaluators.
